EMPLOYMENT HISTORY / WORK EXPERIENCE

APR 2012 - PRESENT	Web/Graphic Designer and Front End Developer, School Website Currently employed as a web/graphic designer and front end developer and my duties are to design and develop responsive websites from wireframing to prototyping and designing to developing and optimising websites for independent schools, colleges and universities utilising HTML, CSS and JavaScript, and on the other side being able to make these websites functional on older web browsers such as IE7 and 8 which is quite challenging.
FEB 2011 - MAR 2012	Front End Developer and Web/Graphic Designer, Freelancing Designing (UI/UX), developing mobile apps and websites for individuals and businesses utilising Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, Dreamweaver and other various software and technologies for print/web design and building and integrating websites to Drupal 7, WordPress and Magento Commerce. It was quite exciting but challenging to compete with rest of the freelancers.

AUG 2011 - SEP 2011	Web Developer/Designer/Maintainer, Neighbours Paper , Voluntary Work My responsibilities were to design them a newsletter mock up and its HTML mark up as well as redesigning their website completely from scratch and integrating it with Drupal 6.
JUN 2011 - JUL 2011	Web Developer/Designer/Maintainer, Open Ealing , Voluntary Work I was on a month voluntary position for this art centre, my responsibilities being redesigning their website and build upon WordPress CMS platform for ease use, along with a new forum section with an integrated calendar system to schedule and alert the upcoming events through emails and text messaging service.

INTERESTS

I have a methodical mind so it's a pleasure to play football along with Mixed Martial Arts. These sports are learnt systematically but played and expressed freely under the pressure of adversity. At distinct times I read books and watch video tutorials which has gave me the opportunity to explore and develop my knowledge/skills where I could transfer it into practical projects.
